What is Going On Tonight.
Francis S. Long Post, No. 30, meets in Memorial hall in the town building.

A miscellaneous shower was given Miss Ethel Green Friday evening at the home of her brother, William Green of Natchaug street in anticipation of her marriage with Hugh O'Grady of Norwalk. The ceremony is to take place on August 24.

Miss Green received many gifts, including linen, cut glass china and silver. During the evening tea and cake were served. Those present were Mrs. Arthur Narrotte, Mrs.
Paul Lavin, Mrs. Henry Sypher, Mrs.
Lloyd Woodworth, Mrs. Daniel P. Mc-Carthy, Mrs. Clifford C. Smith, Mrs.
Thomas A. Shea, Mrs. Samuel R. Dil-worth, Mrs. William Green and Misses Blanche Cartier, Rose Chase, Helen Sy-pher, Beulah McCarthy, Catherine Connell, Helen Mallory, Isabelle Parent, Annette Boudreau, Rita Shea, Elizabeth McCabe, Helen O'Brien, May Savage, Margaret O'Brien, Alice O'Brien, Blanche Fournier, Rose Giguere, May Sage, Rita Green and Margaret Keirney of this city, and Miss Agnes Molitor of Hartford and Miss Anna Keenan of Providence, R. I. The evening proved very enjoyable.

At the home of Mrs. Harriet Meacham of Eastford, Wednesday, her daughter, Floy Charlotte, became the bride of Harry Logan Tatem, son of Mr. and Mrs.
J. M. Tatem of that place. The house was decorated with ferns and sweet peas. At noon, as the bride and groom from Lohengrin was played by Mrs.
Harold W. Nichols of this city, the bridedell pair came down the stairs and passed out to the lawn, where the ceremony took place under a double arch of birches and sweet peas. Rev. Frank Meacham, a brother of the bride, officiated, the double ring service being used.
There were no attendants.

The bride was daintily attired in white georgette over satin and her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms. She carried pale pink and white sweet peas.
Following the ceremony a reception was held for the thirty guests present and breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Tatem left for a ten days' automobile trip through Vermont and on their return will reside in Eastford. The bride's traveling suit was of navy blue serge with hat to correspond.

George Caisse was fined ten dollars and costs for intoxication, fifteen dollars for breach of the peace and sentenced to thirty days in jail for resisting an officer, by Judge Frank H. Post.
In the police court Friday morning, The disturbance in which Caisse figured took place at the corner of Main and Railroad streets about 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The young man's condition was noticed by Officer Louis Paul-hus on duty as traffic officer, who advised him to go home. Caisse was involved in a fight with the officer and when he took him by the arm he immediately showed fight. Supernumerary William Anderson who went to the assistance of Officer Paulhus was bitten on the hand by Caisse while Officer Paulhus received a bite in the arm and Supernumerary John Killourey who came to the rescue of the pair with his automobile was also slightly bitten. The young man was lodged behind the bars. Anderson was obliged to have his wound cauterized by a physician. Caisse has quite a police court record despite his youth and it was not the first time he has figured in an affair of this kind. He pleaded guilty to all three charges. He has been employ-Railroad street but told the court that of late he had been shovelling coal.

Wallace Nutting of Framingham, Mass., after whom is named a famous water color process, with Mrs. Nutting visited this city Friday by automobile, stopping at a Willimantic hotel. Mr.
Nutting, formerly a minister of the gospel at Providence, R. I., was obliged to give up the pulpit on account of ill health. He later took up the work of tinting photographs and of making water colors from photographs and now has studios at Framingham and Ashland, Mass., employing over two hundred, of whom about three-fourths are young women.

About forty-five members of the Woman's Relief Corps attended a picnic at Chamberlain's Grove in the town of Franklin, Wednesday. A basket lunch was served at noon. During the afternoon some of the women went on a naturalizing ceremony, consisting of knitting. The program consisted of songs and recitations.

The installation of a new sheet of glass, 11x13 1/2 inches, in the window of the Church Company, corner of Main and Church streets, attracted considerable attention Friday forenoon. The new glass was to replace one broken in an awning. About three-quarters of the old glass was salvaged by a glass company of Hartford, who did the work.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Ansonia.—The New England Smelting and Refining company of Ansonia filed an incorporation certificate.

East Berlin.—J. P. DeMere is arranging for a party to go deep sea fishing, leaving this (Saturday) morning for New York.
There will be about 15 in the party.

Bloomfield.—After considerable delay, the state highway department has finally received several carloads of oil to put on the roads in Bloomfield.

Woodmont.—Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Cohane of New Haven have been entertaining Miss Sadie Glynn of Haven at their summer home in Woodmont.

Middletown.—Building in Middletown is down to shadow dealings. But for changes to be made in and about Wesleyan university, the showing would be trifling.

West Haven.—The Methodist home for the aged of the New Haven district is to be considerably enlarged. At a meeting of the board of trustees recently held it was voted to purchase the property at 113 Elm street, West Haven, which joins the present home.

Bristol.—The thousands of employees of the New Departure Manufacturing company have become intensely interested in the proposed name for the new hotel being erected by the company on North Another episode in the dispute between Julia Sawyer, owner of the Sawyer apartment, corner of Washington and Brewer streets, New London, and Isaac and Fannie Ablesky, owners of the apartment adjoining on Brewer street, New London, and which the latter acquired from Mrs. Sawyer several months ago, over the boundary line which resulted in a fence that Mrs. Sawyer caused to be constructed between the houses last Monday, to be demolished by agents of Ablesky, occurred Friday forenoon when counsel for the Ables-kys obtained an injunction from Judge Charles T. Walker of the common pleas court, restraining Mrs. Sawyer from erecting a fence there and from obstructing the right of way leading from the front to the rear of the Brewer street property. A suit was brought against Mrs. Sawyer to compel a redrawing of the deed transferring the property to the Ableskys and which will give the plaintiff a right of way over the premises.

The suit is returnable before the September term of the superior court and property of the defendant has been attached in the sum of $8,000.

The Ableskys claim that the defendant's suit was frivolous and that the injunction in the drawing of the deed of the transfer.

TEA FOR THREE AT DAVIS AUG. 11

Tea For Three in the rather sociable title of Rol Cooper Megrue's new play which Selwyn and Company will present at the Davis theatre, Wednesday evening, Aug. 11. The author refers to it as an angle on the triangle and begs that it will be noted that he does not say an angle of the triangle.

The distinction made by Mr. Megrue is well taken. The more suggestion that a play involves the various intrigues and passions of a triangular affair is sufficient these days to turn people away.
This is not a time for the petty affairs of life. But Tea For Three distinctly and decidedly is not any such play.

In fact, reports from New York, where it is now playing with such success that it promises to run well into the spring, declares it to be quite the most potentially offering ever to come from the pen of Mr. Megrue. And, mind you, he has to his credit some of the most successful plays produced in this country including It Pays to Advertise, Under Cover, Under Fire, and Seven Chances and many others.

Tea For Three is produced under the management of Selwyn and Company. It is presented in decidedly handsome stage settings and will be played by a cast of unquestionable superiority.
